

1 THE CHAIRMAN: May I have your attention, please?

2 I hesitate very much to lose the momentum of moving ahead
3 with the consideration of this report if we can get out of 4 the way a number of these amendments. I do not believe
5 that there would likely come up within the next hour and 6 a half any crucial amendments on this article. I would 7 like to inquire whether any of the 15 or so delegates who 8 still intend to go home this evening would object if they
9 were discussed and the Committee of the Whole continued
10 its deliberations on this section until 6 o'clock?

11 Delegate Churchill Murray.

12 DELEGATE E. MURRAY: I think that would be 13 wonderful.

14 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate White.

15 DELEGATE WHITE: Mr. Chairman, you have no
16 objection to those of us remaining who don't want to go
17 home until you finish the work of this session?

18 THE CHAIRMAN: No, indeed, I don't.

19 DELEGATE WHITE: What time do you hope to ad-
20 journ?

21 THE CHAIRMAN: I would adjourn in any event by
